

Frequently Asked Questions about the Seven Steps of a PurposeQuest Mentoring Program

Q: What resources will I receive to help me complete the Seven Steps of a PurposeQuest?

A: You will receive a set of seven CDs that cover what we now call The Seven Steps of a PurposeQuest. Along with the CDs, you will receive a notebook filled with supportive material to help you understand each of the seven steps.

Q: What kind of help may I expect during the program?

After every second step, you can expect to have a coaching session with John Stanko to review your progress to that point. Whenever possible, Dr. Stanko tries to conduct these sessions face-to-face, but a phone appointment may be necessary. John is also available between appointments via email to answer questions or give direction.

Q: What are the seven steps?

A: In the program you will study purpose, values, goals, time management, servant leadership, faith and joy. Each step has one CD with a 60-minute message along with case studies, outlines, and articles to read and study. You will have some work to do to process the material in each of the seven steps.

Q: What if I live outside the United States?

A: PurposeQuest International will send you the materials. If you enroll, Dr. Stanko will work out an agreement with you to facilitate your personal contact with him, although distance and cost may prohibit monthly contact. In that case, Dr. Stanko will work out a schedule that works for you.

Q: What can I expect at the end of the Seven Steps Program?

A: If you go through all Seven Steps, I am confident that you will be a more purposeful leader, equipped to recognize your purpose when it appears.

You may also wish to continue your mentoring relationship with me at the end of your seven-step program.

Q: I want to help others clarify their purpose. What do you have that can help me?

First, you must be familiar with the Seven Steps, so that is where everyone begins. We also have a program to certify you as a PurposeQuest counselor. In the meantime, you may also wish to become certified to administer the DISC, TEAMS and Values profiles. This curriculum is available through PurposeQuest International. Write for more information on the cost of the DISC certification.
