Dr. John W. Stanko

Step One: A free leader pursues activities, careers and ministries that relate to a life purpose.

Step Two: A flowing leader strives for a consistency of life in all activities, roles and objectives.

Step Three: A focused leader knows how to say no because he or she knows what the yes is.

Step Four: A fruitful leader doesn't just talk about productivity, but produces.

Step Five: A fair leader helps develop an atmosphere of trust and open communication.

Step Six: A faithful leader has faith for the future and knows how to develop Win-Win scenarios for all people.

Step Seven: A fun leader uses humor and joy to create an atmosphere conducive to innovation and purpose.
